

Press Release
03.12.07

Grand Opening
10th Dec 2007

Successful Restaurant Owner opens New Restaurant in Tarpoley!

The Red Fox originally a public house has undergone over 1 million pounds in refurbishment to create an authentic and fabulous restaurant to bring an exquisite dining experience to the heart of Tarpoley.

- Mr A K Jilani has been in the restaurant business since 1976 with restaurants throughout England.
- Mr Kismet Miah is a highly skilled chef turned Manager.
- Together they are committed in providing the best dishes and the finest dining environment to ever experience.
- The Red Fox Chef is highly experienced and has worked at many renowned and reputable restaurants. Trained by one of the leading chefs in the country, he has now become one of the best.
- The Red Fox menu consists of Rajasthani, Punjabi and Bengali food cooked fresh with an array of spices.
- The menu boasts many of the best mouth-watering fish dishes to be found as well as tantalising duck, chicken and lamb dishes.
- Mr Jilani is very committed and following on from his success at The Village Indian in Tattenhall, he is determined to make The Red Fox, one of the best Indian restaurants in the country.
- The Village Indian has been awarded various national awards and has an established reputation.
- Service at the Red Fox will be of high class to provide the perfect atmosphere.
- Throughout the year, The Red Fox will host an array of themed nights including a Bollywood Night every quarterly as well as Gourmet Nights and others.

Grand Opening – 10th Dec 2007, 5-10pm will be in

Bollywood Style

Invitees only - a night not to forget!